GENERAL OFFENSE HARDCOPY

SEATTLE LAW DEPT RELEASE COPY

(1199-3 SEXOFF-INDECENT LIBERTIES)

Upon arrival, we contacted C/[REDACTED] on the main floor of the facility. C/[REDACTED] is a nurse at Navos. C/[REDACTED] explained that an employee of Navos, W/[REDACTED] had observed one of the male patients, A/[REDACTED], grab another female patient, V/[REDACTED] V/[REDACTED] by her buttocks.

A database check of A/[REDACTED] showed that he is a Registered Sex Offender, DOC #841838. A/[REDACTED] has been a patient at Navos for approximately two weeks. C/[REDACTED] stated that V/[REDACTED] is diagnosed with an unspecified Schizophrenic spectrum with other psychosis disorder, making her a vulnerable individual due to her mental state.

Prior to contacting A/[REDACTED], I spoke with V/[REDACTED] in a room on the secured third floor of the facility. V/[REDACTED] stated that she was standing in the property line waiting to get an article of clothing. While waiting in line, a male whom she knows as "[REDACTED]" grabbed her buttocks without her consent. V/[REDACTED] turned around and yelled, "Hey!" at A/[REDACTED] after he had grabbed her. A/[REDACTED] did not say anything to V/[REDACTED] after that.

We then contacted A/[REDACTED], who was in his bedroom lying on his bed. I told A/[REDACTED] the reason why we were contacting him and what the allegation being made against him were. A/[REDACTED] expressed confusion about what had occurred. I told A/[REDACTED] that he was under arrest for assault and had him stand up and place his hands behind his back. A/[REDACTED] was arrested without incident. A/[REDACTED] asked if he was going to jail, and when I told him that he was, he said something to the effect of, "Cool I'd rather be there than this place". A/[REDACTED] was then taken out of the facility to a patrol vehicle and read his Miranda Warnings. A/[REDACTED] was then transported back to the Southwest Precinct.

Officers returned back to the third floor of Navos to obtain a recorded statement from V/[REDACTED]. During the statement, [REDACTED] stated that in the past, [REDACTED] has asked her, "Do I look sexy?" [REDACTED] also expressed that she was fearful of [REDACTED].

A recorded statement was also obtained from the Navos employee who witnessed the incident, [REDACTED]. W/[REDACTED] stated that he was monitoring the medication administration line when he observed A/[REDACTED] grab V/[REDACTED]'s buttocks. [REDACTED] explained that A/[REDACTED]'s hand nearly covered the entirety of V/[REDACTED] buttocks. W/[REDACTED], who has worked in both Corrections and Mental Health Facilities for years told me that he believes A/[REDACTED] is a "wolf in sheep's clothing", and that [REDACTED] basically has unrestricted access to additional victims while being housed at Navos.

While at the SW Precinct, A/[REDACTED] urinated in his holding cell even after he had been allowed to use the restroom by Officers. Due to A/[REDACTED]'s DOC status as a sex offender, DOC was contacted via telephone and a detainer was requested to be placed on A/[REDACTED]; however, that request was denied. Seattle Fire Engine 11 responded to the SW Precinct at the request of A/[REDACTED] who claimed he was having a panic attack. SFD found no reason for A/[REDACTED] to require additional medical treatment.
